

State Language Proficiency Testing

Published: 26.06.2020.

The aim of the State Language Proficiency Testing (Certification) is to evaluate a person's (henceforth – Applicant's) state language proficiency level. If the State Language Proficiency Examination is passed successfully, the Applicant receives the state language proficiency certificate. The state language certificate is required for employment requirements and acquisition of a permanent residence permit.

<https://www.visc.gov.lv/en/state-language-proficiency-testing>